The K Club-K Hotels Welcomes Seven New Boutique Hotels to its Collection

As one of the most innovative hotel groups in the Los Angeles area, K Hotels welcomes seven new boutique hotels to their stylish collection in both the domestic and international markets.

“As we grow, K Hotels is increasingly adding new outlets for exposure to our member hotels through our expanded hotel portfolio around the world. Recently adding new hotels in New York and Sydney only helps to establish the growing presence of K Hotels in the hospitality industry,” says Lara Weiss, Executive Director of Worldwide Sales for K Hotels.

As part of a one-of-a-kind and unsurpassed hotel group, members get the benefit of a full-time, dedicated sales team, exclusive member events, revenue management, brand affiliation, an exclusive KH GDS booking code, comprehensive marketing, e-commerce, Quality Assurance and public relations programs and an innovative web-accessible database of corporate, leisure and group account information available to them.

The seven new properties are The Blakely Hotel in New York, The Diamant Hotel's in Sydney and Canberra Australia, Baucis Boutique Hotel in Buenos Aires, Valle Escondido Resort in Panama, La Posada Hotel by Hacienda Pinilla in Costa Rica, and Sotogrande Marina Club in Spain.

The Blakely Hotel in New York, New York, located in the heart of Midtown Manhattan West, steps away from the high-end fashion of 5th Avenue shops, Central Park, Times Square, and the lights of Broadway. The Blakely has been created in a traditional design with the emphasis on service and comfort.

The Diamant Hotel in Sydney is a premier 76-room contemporary boutique hotel located in the heart of Sydney's, with views from every direction on the doorstep of Sydney's nightlife and central to all landmark tourist attractions, shopping precincts, galleries, restaurants, beaches, harbor, international and domestic airports and only moments from Martin Place, Town Hall and the city's financial district.
